17 People attended the meeting. We had one new person in attendance, Brandon from Roland. Cheers, Brandon.

HomebrewCon: You can send beer along to this year's HomebrewCon even if you are not attending. The club will provide ingredients and kegs for your beer if you are interested. No bottles please. You will need to get your own ingredients but turn in the receipt to Mike Young and you will be reimbursed by the club for the expense. See Mike Young or Mark Simpson if you have questions.

BYOB: You can still get a discounted subscription to BYOB magazine through the club until next month's meeting May 17th. If you are interested bring $17.50 to next month's meeting.

Big Brew Day: May 6th will be Big Brew Day at Torrent. There are three different official recipes for big brew day. IPA, Saison, and Octoberfest. If you are interested in brewing one of these styles the club will pay for your ingredients. Contact Scott Nelson if you want a recipe for big brew day. You may also brew any other style you want but the club will not cover your ingredient expense. Please bring your equipment and come make this another great Big Brew Day.

Changes to future club meeting format. Starting in May our club meeting will go back to a 7:00 PM start time. It will still go until 9:00pm. If you will be submitting a beer for the style of the month competition please E-mail Luke Hoekstra lukehoekstra@gmail.com ahead of time and tell him what you are bringing. Please also try to get your beer to Luke as soon as you arrive so he can set up while we conduct the business portion of the meeting. We will be switching to a condensed score sheet. This should speed up the judging portion and give us more time afterward for one on one feedback so we can continue to improve our beers.
